Global Citizenship. Global citizenship is a foundational concept that is especially relevant in our diverse society. At its most basic, global citizenship is the idea that we belong to a shared community of fellow human beings. That is to say, we are not only citizens of a nation, we are also citizens of the world.

Firstly, global citizenship means people live in common community and have similar issues to confront. This definition is introduced by Cabrera (2010). It can be seen that the boundaries that divide the world into separate countries are removed (Passport of global citizenship, 2011; The tide of globalization, 2000). In addition, Wilson and...
