I am what I am I am my own special creation. So come take a look, Give me the hook or the ovation. It's my world that I want to have a little pride in, My world, and it's not a place I have to hide in. Life's not worth a damn, 'Till you can say, "Hey World, I am what I am." I am what I am, I don't want praise, I dont want pity. I bang my own drum.

"I Am What I Am" is a song originally introduced in the Tony Award-winning Broadway musical La Cage aux Folles. The song is the finale number of the musical's first act, and performed by the character of Albin Mougeotte, first played by George Hearn. His version appears on the original cast album released in 1983. The song was composed by Jerry Herman, an openly gay man.

I Am What I Am, a huge Euro hit for Gloria in 83/84, has long been my personal feel-good anthem. I relate emphatically to the song's self-affirming lyrics, which celebrate a strident pride in self-identity and authenticity, and an unyielding defiance in the demolition of the self-hating closet.
