Over a period of about three years toward the end of her life, St. Therese of Lisieux (1873-1897) was asked by her Carmelite superiors to compose eight theatrical pieces for special occasions in her convent. She did not consider them mere trivial amusements. On the contrary, Therese invested herself wholeheartedly in the writing and performance of these little dramas, which

Thérèse's independent

"prayer is an aspiration of the heart, it is a simple glance directed to heaven, it is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy; finally, it is something great,

supernatural, which expands my soul and unites me to Jesus." Besides the countless spontaneous prayers found throughout her autobiography, letters, poetry, and plays, St.
additional independent prayers, from every period of her life, here collected for the first time. In this book we find prayers to the Infant Jesus and the Holy Face, prayers to Mary and the saints, prayers composed in joy and sorrow, prayers written for her novices and missionary brothers. All of them reflect the Saint's passionate love of God, which she wished to share with friends near and far.

The highlight of this volume is the first critical text of Thérèse's famous
"Offering to Merciful Love," fully annotated. Ample background materials explain the setting and significance of each prayer. Scholars will find here essential new information for the study of the Saint's doctrine; general readers will find this book an indispensable resource for learning to pray as Thérèse did. "It is

prayer, it is sacrifice which give me all my strength; these are the invincible weapons Jesus has given me. They can touch souls much better than words."

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, largely unknown when she died in a Carmelite convent at the age of twenty-four,
became-through her posthumously published autobiography-one of the world's most influential religious figures. In Saint Thérèse of Lisieux Kathryn Harrison reveals the hopes and fears of the young girl behind the religious icon.
Saint Thérèse of Lisieux

shows us the pampered daughter of successful and deeply religious tradespeople who—through a personal appeal to the pope—entered a convent at the early age of fifteen. There, Thérèse embraced sacrifice and self-renunciation in a single-minded pursuit of the "nothingness" she felt would bring her closer to God.

With feeling, Harrison shows us the sensitive four-year-old whose mother's death haunted her forever and contributed to the ascetic spirituality that strengthened her to embrace even the deadly throes of tuberculosis. Tellingly placed in the context of Therese of Lisieux, was first published in 1899. Today it ranks amongst the greatest Christian spiritual classics and it has been translated into practically every well-known language. Almost every pope since its publication has proposed St. Therese's teaching to the faithful for their imitation- Pius XI declared her the greatest saint of our age and John Paul II made her a Doctor of the Church.

Known as the "saint of the little way" because of her genuine simplicity, love of God, & recognition of Scripture as the source of inspiration & perfection,

Therese of Lisieux is one of the greatest saints of modern times. The key to her enormous popularity - the little way of perfection - can be summed up in one word: love. This work explores the five essential components of the Little Way: joyful humility as a child of God, bold confidence in God's mercy & loving-kindness; tranquil trust in the actions of God; persistence in prayer as a simple raising of the heart to God; & daily practice of the little way of love. Within each of these sections, Nelson has gathered extracts from the saint's writings, sayings, &
